ORDERED:

That the Superintendent's Recommendation #24-044 be adopted as follows: That the School Committee approve the Cambridge Public Schools Student Opportunity Act Plan, a Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) requirement that is submitted every three years and reviewed annually by DESE (as of 2019). This plan addresses a subset of a district's overall initiatives, focusing on evidence-based programs and strategies that will improve the educational experiences and outcomes of students, including English learners, students with disabilities, and low-income students. The plan highlights critical, actionable evidence-based programs and strategies that are focused on rapidly improving outcomes for students with low academic performance. This plan highlights how CPS plans to enhance ongoing efforts in the years ahead. the revisions to the Wellness Policy as detailed in the attached document.

Description:

This is a review of the Student Opportunity Act Plan, a DESE requirement which requires School Committee approval in advance of the April 1, 2024 deadline.
