SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION: Wilson Language Training

Purpose: To provide instructional materials for the Foundations curriculum

Amount of Contract: $30,035.10

Description/Scope of Services:

This contract supports the purchase of the instructional materials (Teacher kits and student materials) from Wilson Language Training Program required to implement the Foundations Program. Foundations is a researched-based program that offers a sequential, explicit approach to the teaching of phonemic awareness and phonics in the primary grades. It has the flexibility to serve as a prevention (Tier 1) program to complement and enhance the standard general education literacy curriculum and as an intervention (Tier 2) program to provide targeted instruction to at risk students.
