NOTICE

April 14, 2020

There will be a virtual meeting of the Special Education and Student Support Sub-Committee on Friday, April 17, 2020 at 12:30 p.m., for the purpose of beginning to:

1. Build and strengthen partnerships with outside organizations and institutions – such as neighboring universities and OST groups that will;
2. Create an in-house consortium of partners and resources.
3. Establish and communicate best practices to supplement the district's remote learning plan with an ongoing priority on equity and access.
4. Share resources available to students and families during April break April 20th - 24th.

Community members will have an opportunity to share resources that are available for students, families, and educators, and to comment or ask questions. It is anticipated that this meeting will end by or before 2:00 p.m.
